I represent the following organization on the IJPC-SE (acronym, or “none”): AMERICAN COLLEGE OF EPIDEMIOLOGY (ACE)

as the Primary (1), Secondary (2), Tertiary (3) or Quaternary (4), or not applicable [N/A] PRIMARY representative; or, as an invited guest/interested party/expert advisor:

Please include below, and elaborate where needed, all actual conflicting interests, including financial, consultant, institutional and other relationships that might lead or has led to bias or a conflict-of-interest, or that reasonably might create a perception of bias or a conflict-of-interest by your peers or the public. If there are none, please state “None” alongside each item “a” through “e” below. If in doubt, rather err on the side of providing more information as this will minimize the need for follow-up.

With the above definitions in mind relating to my employer and/or volunteer entities, those entities from which I have accepted grants/contracts, salaries/stipends/honoraria/royalties, both monetarily and in-kind, and anything else like personal relationships that could actually introduce, or be perceived to introduce bias into my decision-making, I disclose the following information covering the 5-year period since January 1, 2010:

- a) Financial relationships: NONE
- b) Consultant relationships: NONE
- c) Institutional relationships: NONE
- d) Other relationships: NONE
- e) Any additional information: NONE

If in my service to the IJPC-SE I should ever find myself in a conflict-of-interest, actual or perceived, I will declare it and offer to recuse myself from all circumstances that could in any way influence Board deliberations as per the Founding Bylaws (Article V, Section 2).
